97th meeting of the Micum McIntire Clan Association

Date: Saturday August 5, 2017

Time: Registration 10:00am, Meeting 11:00am

Place: Virginia Weare Parsons Education Center

207 York Street

York, ME 03909

Happy Spring Clan Members,

Hope this letter finds everyone well!

Excitement about our Micum McIntire Clan Recipes Cookbook that has just been delivered from the publisher! Everyone will want to purchase a personal copy plus copies for children or other family members! The recipes go from Woodchuck Stew to iced tea (not the same recipe) and almost everything in between! The price is $19.95 per book. You may pick up your copy(ies) at our annual McIntire Clan Reunion, Saturday August 5th at 11:00. If you can't make it to the reunion and would like to order cookbooks you can order using the order form attached. Please include $5.00 for each book for shipping costs.

Wendy Pirsig of The Old Berwick Historical Society will provide us with a video presentation of Dr. Chris Gerrard's lecture at Saugus Iron Works last November regarding the fate of the Scots imprisoned at Durham Cathedral, then, it will be followed by a Q&A about the local history of Scots prisoners presented in a new exhibit at the Counting House in South Berwick, Maine: Forgotten Frontier: Untold Stories of the Piscataqua. Old Berwick Historical Society would like to encourage all or our members to visit their Forgotten Frontier exhibit, opening to the public May 3. More information can be found at <http://oldberwick.org/>

Before the meeting begins, during lunch, and at any other free time there will be a Stereoscopic Viewer, in use in 1917, through which you will be able to view pictures of TheGreat Warin 3D, information about Micum's descendants who fought in the War, including Philip McIntire Woodwell father of our immediate past vice president, George Woodwell, poetry inspired by the War, and a few “War Time Recipes” which have no sugar, dairy, or eggs because of all the shortages at that time.

Bring your lunch and something to drink. If you are able, bring a homemade dessert to share. Keep in mind napkins, plates and glasses are not available at the facility.

There is an attached form if you haven't already paid your 2017 dues. There is an attached order form for the cookbook as well. Hope everyone gets one and tries all these family favorites!

Please be aware the address to send in your dues is different than the address to order the cookbook.

Hope to see you on August 5!

Cruachan!
