

Micum McIntire Clan Association
BYLAWS (adopted 1973)

ARTICLE II

Purposes

The Association is organized for the following purposes, to-wit:

- To preserve and perpetuate the historic aspects and relationships pertaining to the lineage of Micum McIntire, including the rights of descendants and members of the family;
- To promote social relations among those who are interested in the preservation of said family;
- To gather, preserve, and disseminate historical and literary information regarding said family;
- To preserve and perpetuate the memory of those men and women who are a part of the family history;
- To provide financial assistance and sponsorship for the education of family members;
- To promote other benevolent and charitable purposes, and;
- To take, acquire, own, hold, maintain, control, mortgage, pledge, sell, and convey real or personal property, including but not limited to stock and bonds, or both, for the use of the Association, and;
- To promote and effectuate the purposes herein set forth, within the limits established by law.